
H S RAMESH, Director (Technical)

Graduated in Instrumentation Engineering in the year 1970 from Pune University and having been with various process industries like Steel, Copper and Paper, he switched over to cement in the year 1983.

Having worked with different players he joined Lafarge in 1999 when they entered the Indian operations. He headed the Lafarge plants in India and then took up international assignments in Malaysia and Indonesia.

Joined the Italcementi group as Performance Manager for the Asia Pacific zone during 2008 based at Bangalore and also in addition took up as Director (Technical) for the Indian operations from 2009 .
